Welcome Spring From Landmark Holiness Church!

Who Will be Jesus to Children Like Lena?

“How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?” (Romans 10:14)

“I help you pray Miss A-Becca.” From a distance, it looked like 7 year old Lena was playing, but actually, as Sis. Rebecca laid her hands on each child’s head in prayer, Lena laid her hands on their heads to “pray” as well.

When I think of my childhood, I think of listening for the ice cream truck on a hot summer day. You could hear the music way before you could see the truck! I think of family dinners with cousins, campmeetings, and youth camps! The memories bring a smile. They’re fun. They’re safe. Not so with a lot of the children we bus in on Sunday morning. They’re young, but many of them have already been exposed to pornography, domestic violence, alcohol, and drugs. Some have had their innocence taken away by people they should have been able to trust. Bullying and suicidal thoughts are not uncommon. Their memories are definitely not safe.

Recently, some of our children started missing church, and our Sunday School team followed up with a personal visit where they live. As soon as we were spotted, little arms were wrapping around us. Hands were reaching out for candy. “You came to see us!”, one of them yelled, excitedly. I looked into their eyes and smiled. What did I see? I saw love. I saw trust.

Even though we go there often, each time I am still shocked at what we find. Concrete floors. Hunger. Addiction. Hopelessness. Depression. Yet, this is where our children live. This is where they play.

What can we do to help? There’s not much we can do about where they live. Their families are bound by sin and addiction. We can take them food and clothing and minister to their physical needs, but ultimately they need the life-changing message of the Gospel. They need Jesus! Who will be “Jesus” to Mulberry Street? Who will be “Jesus” to children like Lena? Will I? Will you?

“What Kind of Church are we?” - by Bro. Jamie Henderson

“We are a mission church”, said the Pastor’s wife. The young man, replied, “Aren’t all churches supposed to be a mission church?” This conversation took place between me as a young convert and the Pastor’s wife some years ago.

The name “Landmark” comes from the book of Proverbs, chapter 22, verse number 28. “Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set,” (KJV). While trying to hold the ways set forth by Jesus and the Apostles, the Landmark Holiness Church has a burden for local missions to those who have fallen through the cracks even in the shadow of the steeple. They are trying not to forget the most important command to go out in the “highways and byways” showing the encompassing love of Christ to the least of these.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,
(Jesus in Luke 4:18)
